New Orleans, LA - August 6, 2008 - New Orleans taxpayers have until August 15th to inspect the open property tax rolls. The tax rolls were officially opened on August 1st.

Taxpayers can inspect the rolls and meet with their Assessor to attempt to informally resolve any complaint they may have with their property tax assessment.

Assessment lists are open for public inspection until August 15th in the Assessor's Offices on the fourth floor of City Hall located at 1300 Perdido Street.

Taxpayers can check their assessments online at the Orleans Parish Assessor's website www.opboa.org.

If taxpayers are still dissatisfied with their assessment, they can file a formal appeal with the Board of Review.

New Orleans City Council

The New Orleans City Council is the legislative branch of New Orleans City government. The Council considers and enacts all local laws that govern the City of New Orleans. The Council also approves the operating and capital budgets for the City, as recommended by the mayor, and continually monitors revenues and expenditures for local government operations. The City Council is also the regulatory body for public utilities. It also reviews and has final say on many land use and zoning matters, as well as considers major economic development projects for the City. As a Board of Review for Orleans Parish, the Council examines appeals of property tax assessments for real estate taxes, and certifies tax rolls to the Louisiana Tax Commission. Other responsibilities of the Council include overseeing the operation of the public access television in Orleans Parish.

The City Council is comprised of five districts and two councilmembers-at-large. Council President and Councilmember-at-Large Jacquelyn Brechtel Clarkson; Council Vice-President and Councilmember-at-Large Arnie Fielkow; District "A" Councilmember Shelley Midura; District "B" Councilmember Stacy S. Head; District "C" Councilmember James Carter; District "D" Councilmember Cynthia Hedge-Morrell; and District "E" Councilmember Cynthia Willard-Lewis.
