New Orleans, LA - September 23, 2008 - All property owners appealing their 2009 property tax assessments should have now received scheduling letters.

Click here to view the Board of Review hearing schedule. If the appeal you filed with your assessor does not appear on the hearing schedule, and you did not receive notice confirming settlement of your appeal, you are encouraged to contact your assessor to inquire about its status.

If exceptional circumstances do not allow you to attend your scheduled hearing, make-up hearings will be held on Friday, October 10, 2008 between 9:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. However, these make-up hearings will be held on a first come first served basis, and you may have to wait a considerable time, possibly several hours, before your appeal is heard on that date.

If you have questions about your appeal that have not been addressed, contact Kerry Miller at kmiller@frilot.com (504-599-8249) or Kyle Spaulding at kspaulding@frilot.com (504-599-8249).

New Orleans City Council

The New Orleans City Council is the legislative branch of New Orleans City government. The Council considers and enacts all local laws that govern the City of New Orleans. The Council also approves the operating and capital budgets for the City, as recommended by the mayor, and continually monitors revenues and expenditures for local government operations. The City Council is also the regulatory body for public utilities. It also reviews and has final say on many land use and zoning matters, as well as considers major economic development projects for the City. As a Board of Review for Orleans Parish, the Council examines appeals of property tax assessments for real estate taxes, and certifies tax rolls to the Louisiana Tax Commission. Other responsibilities of the Council include overseeing the operation of the public access television in Orleans Parish.

The City Council is comprised of five districts and two councilmembers-at-large. Council President and Councilmember-at-Large Jacquelyn Brechtel Clarkson; Council Vice-President and Councilmember-at-Large Arnie Fielkow; District "A" Councilmember Shelley Midura; District "B" Councilmember Stacy S. Head; District "C" Councilmember James Carter; District "D" Councilmember Cynthia Hedge-Morrell; and District "E" Councilmember Cynthia Willard-Lewis.
